Further information is available from the selling agents. The reception rooms on the ground floor have a log burner and an open fire.

There is a lovely garden surrounding the house with a vegetable garden to the east, and a grassed area to the south and west. To the front of the house is a flat area approached down a couple of steps featuring a bench providing a lovely area to sit outdoors. To the west of the house is a grassed area featuring a washing line and a summer house.

Glensherup Farm Buildings

Old House

Glensherup Farm features the Old House of Wester Glensherup described by historic Scotland as a 2-storey building constructed of rough stone and rubble with shaped margins built in 1693. The roof is a crowstepped gable design and has a lean-to car port to the rear. The building features double sliding doors facing into the courtyard at the rear of the house. There is a separate outbuilding to the southwest marked with the initials 'WF' and constructed in 1694.

In addition to the listed buildings there is a long low shed of rough stone construction on the eastern side of the courtyard under a pitched box profile roof. Located to the east of the house and buildings is a timber framed pole barn with corrugated cladding and roofing. There is a sheep fank located on the west side of the buildings.

Land

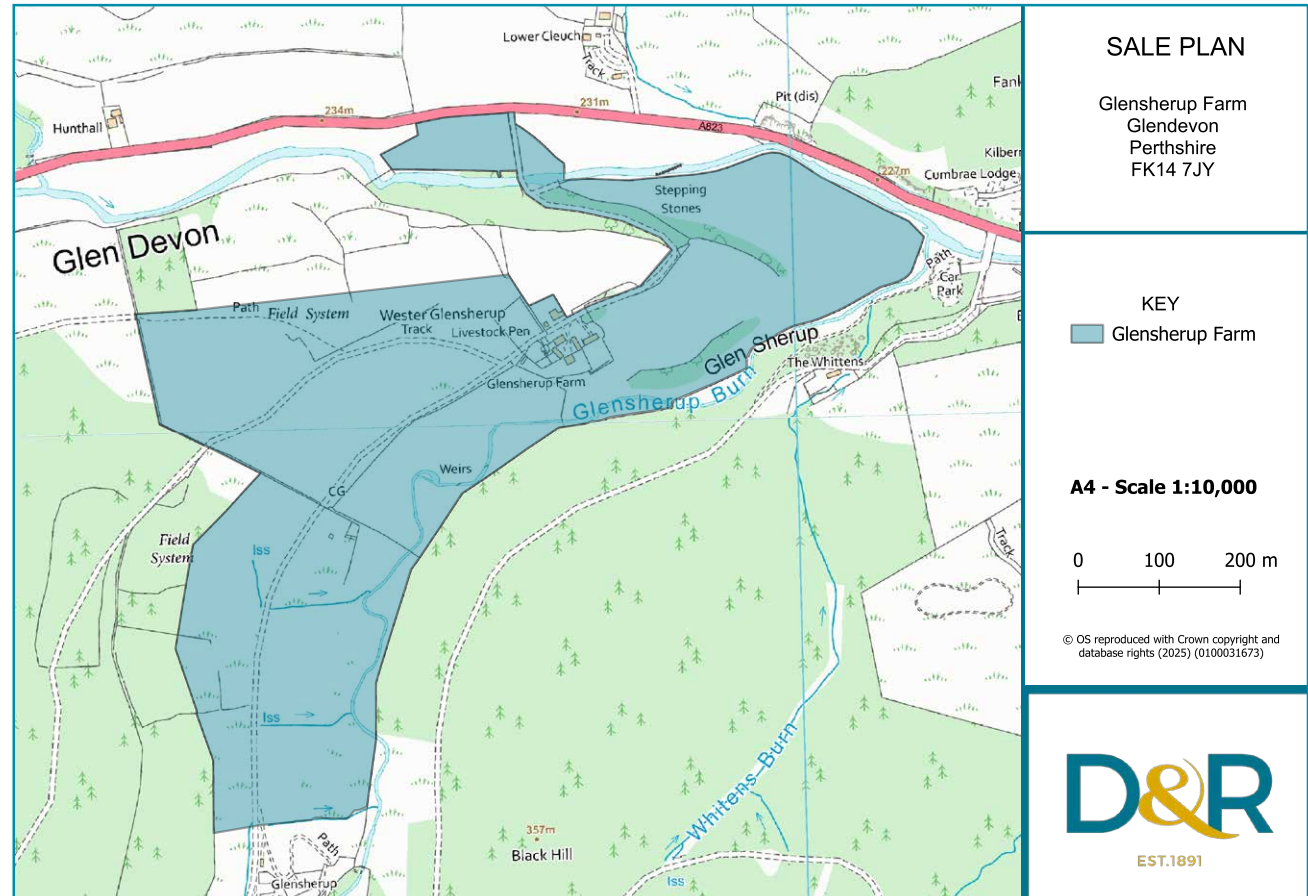

The land extends to approximately 76.57 acres and is predominantly classed as permanent pasture and rough grazing. The land is classed as 5.2 according to the James Hutton Institute for Land Classification. The land rises from approximately 770 feet above sea level at the northern end by the river Devon to approximately 1,026 feet at the highest point on the western boundary with 740 feet above sea level at the western boundary of the farm. The land is in good heart and is relatively free draining and all fields are stock proof.

Important Notice

Davidson & Robertson for themselves and for the Vendor(s) or Lessors(s) of the property described in these particulars, whose agents they are, give notice that

1. These particulars are produced in good faith as a general outline only and do not constitute, nor constitute part of, any offer or contract.
2. No person in the employment of Davidson & Robertson has any authority to make or give any representation or warranty whatsoever in relation to this property or these particulars, nor to enter into any contract relating to this property on behalf of the Agents, nor into contract on behalf of the Vendors.
3. It is the responsibility of any prospective purchaser or lessees to satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of any information upon which any prospective purchaser or lessee relies on in making an offer or bid. The making of any offer or bid for this property will be taken as an admission by the prospective purchaser or lessee that he has relied solely upon his own personally verified inspection and enquiries. No responsibility can be accepted for loss or expense incurred by prospective purchasers in viewing the property or in the event of any property being sold or withdrawn.
4. All descriptions, dimensions, references to condition and other details are given without responsibility and should not be relied on as statements of fact and prospective purchasers must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the correctness of each of them. Descriptions of the property are subjective and are published as opinions and not statements of fact. They are not intended to be binding on the Vendors of their Agents.
5. Nothing in these particulars is to be regarded as a statement that the property is in good structural, agricultural or horticultural condition, nor should any statement be taken as a warranty to be implied that any services, appliances, equipment, installations or facilities on the property are in good working order. Prospective purchasers should satisfy themselves as to the condition of all such matters.
6. The Purchaser(s) shall be deemed to acknowledge that they have not entered into an agreement to purchase in reliance on any statement contained in these particulars, that they have satisfied themselves as to the content of each such statement by inspection, enquiry or otherwise and that no warranty or representation has been made by the Vendors of their Agents in respect of the property.

7. Any error, omission or mis-statement in these particulars or any correspondence relating thereto shall not entitle the Purchaser to rescind or to be discharged from any Agreement to Purchase nor shall it entitle either party to compensation or damages, or give either party any cause of civil action.

8. The property is sold with all faults and defects whether of condition or otherwise and neither the Vendors nor their Agents will be held responsible for such faults and defects.

9. The photographs printed in these particulars show only certain parts of the property and they were not necessarily taken when the particulars were produced.

10. Where any reference is made to planning permissions or potential uses, such information is given by the Vendor and their Agents in good faith. Prospective purchasers should make their own enquiries with the Local Planning Authority into such matters.

11. These particulars have been prepared in good faith and in accordance with relevant legislation at the time of writing.
